Summary

Creative Entrepreneur | Theatre & Film Artist

Kristin is a multidisciplinary creator, director, and producer with over a decade of experience in theatre, film, and immersive storytelling. My work explores the intersection of art, healing, and social impact, crafting experiences that engage audiences on a profound level. As the creator of Constellation Theatre, I am pioneering a new art form that merges immersive theatre with systemic constellation therapy, transforming storytelling into a visceral experience. With a background in acting, directing, and producing for stage and screen, I have helmed original productions, Off-Broadway shows, and immersive theatre experiences that challenge and inspire.
