Summary

Theatre Creator | Director | Producer

Kristin is a multidisciplinary creator, director, and producer with 15 years of experience in theatre, film and immersive storytelling. My work explores the intersection of art, healing and social impact, crafting experiences that engage audiences on a profound level. As the creator of Constellation Theatre, I am pioneering a new art form that merges immersive theatre with systemic constellation therapy, transforming storytelling into a visceral experience. With a background in acting, directing and producing for stage and screen, I have helmed original productions, Off-Broadway shows and immersive theatre experiences that challenge and inspire. As Founder & former CEO of Buddy System MIA, I integrated artistic innovation with community-driven impact, demonstrating how creative leadership can shape culture, and build sustainable solutions.
